

Dear Notre Dame Parish School Community,

It is with great joy that I send you this introductory message as the next principal of Notre Dame Parish School. I am grateful to God for this opportunity to serve as your principal and I would like to thank Msgr. Buelt for entrusting me with this role. Throughout the interview process, the dedication and love of the community for its school was evident in Msgr. Buelt and the members of the Principal Search Committee.

I have been a teacher and administrator in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools for over 12 years. In 2016, my wife and I accepted the Lord's call to go on a long-term mission with our family to Liberia, West Africa. It has been a gift to serve as a mission director. My family and I have grown through this work and had our own faith strengthened through our encounter with Christ in the people of Liberia. We now welcome the opportunity to return to the Archdiocese of Denver.

Catholic schools are vital to forming faithful followers of Christ. Notre Dame School has a strong tradition of Catholic formation and academic excellence. I first became familiar with Notre Dame Parish School in my previous role as principal of St. Mary Catholic School in Littleton. Mrs. Molis was a colleague and mentor to me during this time. I am honored to follow after her. I look forward to building on her faithful service and continuing to grow Notre Dame School's tradition of academic excellence and Catholic formation.

I look forward to meeting the school and parish community later this summer. Until that time, let us pray for one another. I wish you a blessed finish to Lent and a joyful Easter season!

Sincerely in Christ,

Greg Caudle
